Reading: In reading we will be talking about how if we learn about natural disasters it can make us safer.

Religion: In religion we will be finishing up our Apostles Creed scripture search. Then we will be learning about the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation.

Math: In math we will continue to learn about adding, subtracting, and multiplying decimals.

Science: In science we will be finishing our matter unit. Then we will be learning about energy and matter in organisms.

Social Studies: In social studies we will be learning about the connection between local landforms and traditions, and Native American Tribes across the USA. Each student will be creating a presentation on a specific tribe that they chose to research more about.

Writing: In writing each student will be creating a persuasive essay. They will write about if a natural disaster was going to hit their house would they stay and rebuild or would they move away.

Reminders

Please remind your students to be bring their planners home every day and return them to school. In class we write down all of our homework, test days, important information.

If a parent/gradians signs their planners they are able to earn a stamp.

Students should also be bringing their own snack for snack time. I do not always have extras for them.

Please make sure we are remembering to bring band instruments and gym clothes.
